Hi Andrew,

I have conducted a search of my maps and databases for you and there are no declared heritage places nor any previously recorded Aboriginal archaeological sites located within ML29678. I've attached a map extract for you and you can see that there are heritage places and Aboriginal archaeological sites in the wider vicinity, so there may be other sites within ML 29678 that are as yet undiscovered.

The historic Brocks Creek township and associated sites are the aqua squares located about 6km to the SW from your ML and the red dots to the N and NE are stone artefact scatters and stone quarries.

Care should be taken during exploration and extraction activities, so as not to disturb or destroy any potential archaeological sites.

Regards,
Di
